Experience

Monica graduated from Western Washington University with her Bachelor's degree in Cultural Anthropology & Psychology in June of 2018. She is currently working as a Production assistant at Buell Realtime. During her free time, she enjoys journaling at cute coffee shops, discovering new music, studying astrology, hanging out in animal shelters, hula-hooping, visiting plant nurseries, practicing yoga, volunteering with children, and watching The Office.

Quote

Growing up I was always interested in the legal industry because of television shows, and after a family friend introduced me to court reporting I knew this was where I wanted to be.
