Experience

Laura began as a freelance court reporter in 2008. She began working with Buell Realtime in the summer of 2017. Laura has been a court reporter for various proceedings including depositions, hearings, examinations under oath, witness statements, and arbitrations. She has the ability to provide rough drafts, expedites, and can handle complex cases.

Laura enjoys spending time with her family and friends, traveling, cooking, and shopping, of course.

Quote

To me, it's all about making sure I'm providing top-notch services to clients. It's so important for attorneys, parties, and witnesses to feel comfortable and assured that the record is in good hands. I love working with Buell Realtime because putting their clients first is top priority for them as well!
